COUNSELOR COMMITMENT FORM

CAMP JOY is a ministry to youth and adults with intellectual disabilities, as well as to you, the volunteer counselor. In order to provide the best camp experience possible, please review the following responsibilities.

COUNSELOR GOALS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Set a CHRISTIAN example for campers and staff to follow.
2. Be ENTHUSIASTIC and INTERESTED in helping a person with an intellectual disability.
3. Assist his/her camper to conform and enjoy the camp schedule.
4. Be RESPONSIBLE for the personal hygiene of your camper.
5. Have prayer time with your camper at bedtime (pray for family, friends, pets, etc.) and review the Bible lesson and memory verse of the day.
6. Have prayer time with your PRAYER PARTNER (your roommate) daily. It is very important to have a prayer time and lean on God's wisdom and strength.
7. Give your camper your FULL attention. Be with your camper AT ALL TIMES. All other things come second this week. NO CAMPER IS TO BE LEFT ALONE!!
8. Handle any behavior problems in a positive but direct manner. If inappropriate behavior continues and interferes with other campers or counselors, the camper should be removed from the group in order to have a time to refocus and be able to rejoin that group or activity. If the camper continues inappropriate behavior, the counselor should consult the Staff Counselor or Director (a senior staff member) on ways to handle the behavior of the camper. The senior staff person will be glad to assist in any way needed. We encourage each counselor to handle the behavior of his/her own camper.
9. Camp schedule is hectic and demanding, therefore SLEEP when it is time to sleep, REST when it is rest time. Without proper rest and sleep this week you will not be able to be enthusiastic and fresh for all of the activities of the day. A counselor curfew will be announced each night after staffing by the Director.
10. Counselors are to participate in ALL ACTIVITIES (ex. be cheerleaders for your team). Leaving before a camper activity is concluded must be approved by the Director.
11. No profanity from counselors – if campers use profanity, every effort should be made to discourage it. Never laugh when the camper uses inappropriate language.

12. NO SNACKS, FOOD, OR DRINKS are to be given to the campers. NO SNACKS are to be kept in any Housing Facilities. SNACKS for staff and counselors are only at night during or after staffing.
13. Per Policy of Camp Joy Belize AND Living Waters Fellowship, no alcoholic beverages or tobacco products are permitted during camp. Anyone possessing alcohol or consuming alcohol will be immediately dismissed.
14. Counselors are NOT to leave the grounds during the week they are working at CAMP JOY. If you have forgotten something, let the staff counselor know and it will be taken care of. In an emergency, a counselor may leave the grounds ONLY with permission from the CAMP DIRECTOR.
15. Counselors and staff are discouraged from having personal visitors during camp. Visitors wishing to observe CAMP JOY as a whole are permitted provided this has been prearranged with the CAMP DIRECTOR.
16. COUNSELORS are discouraged from bringing computers, DVD players and any other electronic devices that will impede their ability to take care for their camper 24 hrs a day.

Cell Phones will be allowed, ONLY after staffing each evening**

Cell Phones may be taken away for the remaining part of camp if the cell phone becomes a distraction**

17. The counselor commitment begins on _____ (orientation) and ends after staff closing on _____. Both of these events are as vital as the week of camp.
18. As a model to your camper and their families, counselors are to dress comfortably, but appropriately. You are to encourage, uplift and motivate fellow staff to be more committed to Christ and help them grow in Christ-like love for everyone involved in camp-staff, campers, families and friends.
19. Be open to all the blessings that God will shower upon you this week. By giving of yourself to another person you will have an opportunity to grow stronger and closer to God. CAMP JOY is a unique experience and very rewarding.
